

Teen fiction (w. 4– w. 6)

What and When?

You will choose an English novel to read for the next three weeks. You will get to read your novel during the English lessons. Make sure your choice of novel suits your level of English. During the lessons you will have to make sure that read but also write on a book review that will be the first part of the assessment. On Thursday the 11th of February (week 6) you will have to hand in your book review. On this Thursday you will also be doing a minimum 1,5 minutes talk (the second part of the assessment) of your book in small groups.

Why?

The skills you will be practicing during the work with "Teen fiction;

- förstå och tolka innehållet i olika engelska texter
- formulera sig och kommunicera i tal och skrift
- använda språkliga strategier för att förstå och göra sig förstådda
- anpassa språket efter olika syften, mottagare och sammanhang

DIARY
A NOVEL

How?

I will be sharing a book review and a guide for your talk in groups on stolofsara. You are responsible for completing it in time. Should there not be enough time during the lessons, you will have to finish your work at home. Novels cannot be taken home, which means you have to plan your reading carefully.

