

Reading students' questions 8b Key

Martin Luther King

1 he was fighting against racism

2 he got murdered by a white racist in 1968

3 he got the peace prize

4 he struggled to persuade the US Government to declare the policy of racial discrimination in the southern states unlawful

5 he was born in 1929

Eating disorders

1. Around 4-5% of all women have some kind of eating disorder.

2. The difference between Anorexia and Bulimia, is that anorexics eat too little, but bulimics eat too little and too much. Bulimia involves both compulsive binge eating and dieting.

3. One difference is that binge eaters do not compensate for their binge eating by vomiting, dieting or using laxatives. Another thing that is different is that binge eaters are almost always overweight.

4. There seems to be a genetic factor, as well as a cultural one. The thin ideal of the western world is probably part of the problem. The death of a family member or a close friend is also a possible reason for a person to become anorexic. Puberty is another one.

5. Eating disorders can be treated and patients can get well. The treatment usually involves a team of doctors, psychologists, nutritionists and physiotherapists.

The importance of a healthy lifestyle

1. Experts recommend about an hour a day.

2. The chemical is called endorphins.

3. You can walk, run, ride a bike, hoola hoop or exercise at a gym.

4. You can eat healthy and move regularly.

5. To make your heart stronger is Aerobic activity necessary.

Love songs

1. It is a sad song.
2. The message of the first song is that you're not alone just because you've broken up with someone.
3. She sings that she can't speak and that her knees are weak.
4. (Your own thoughts)
5. She wants her ex-partner to know it's over.
6. She describes it with the sentences "Some find it in the face of their children" and "Some find it in their lover's eyes."

Dian Fossey was a leading authority on the study of endangered mountain gorillas in the forrest of Rwanda.

1. She flew to Tanzania and study social interactions of gorilla grups for 18 years.
2. Now we know more about gorills behavior.They did a movie that was insperied by the book, she became very popular and there is a speculation that she was murded because of her efforts to conserve the gorillas
3. She learn how the gorillas communicate , habits, methodes and social structures.
4. Maybe she want to help them because they are exposed

9. The media is all around us

- 1 yes
- 2 information about peapole
- 3 pornography sites
4. yes

The importance of looking good - key

1. It means that you shouldn't judge someone by it physical appearance because it's the inside that matters and it could surprise you.
2. The media presents people that live up to the society's ideal person. They are often young, slender, have muscular bodies and a lot of money.
3. Some problems that the people that try to live up to the society's standers can get a lot of mental issues like depression, anxiety, eating disorders or get in to drugs etc.